

GEORGIA EXPORT GRANT

The Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD), in partnership with the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) provides reimbursement funding to eligible Georgia exporters for pre-approved export activities. This competitive grant program is intended to increase the number of small businesses that export, assist small firms with export development and expand international sales.

DO YOU MEET THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS:

- ☒ IS YOUR GEORGIA COMPANY A SMALL BUSINESS THAT EXPORTS PRODUCTS OR SERVICES GLOBALLY?
- ☒ DO YOUR PRODUCTS CONSIST OF 51% U.S. CONTENT?
- ☒ ARE YOU LOOKING TO INCREASE YOUR EXPORTS?

You might qualify to receive reimbursable export funding through the Georgia Export Grant.

What Activities are Eligible for Reimbursement?

- Export training courses enrollment fees
- International trade show booth costs

Funded in part through a grant with the U.S. Small Business Administration and in accordance with Section 632 of Public Law 117-328, Georgia's total STEP program cost is $484,833.26 of which 75% is Federal Share of $364,000 and Non-Federal Share of $120,833.26.
